

Jeanette B. Pendleton

December 15, 1921 - August 26, 2020

Surrounded by her loved ones, Jeanette B. Pendleton, 98, of Warren Center, Pennsylvania, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, August 26th 2020.

Jeanette was born December 15th, 1921 to Andrew and Mabel (Miller) Burton in Susquehanna, Pa. She attended and graduated from the Susquehanna School system and subsequently Mansfield State Teacher's College in 1943. She was immediately "scooped up" and hired by the Warren Center School. She moved to Warren Center in the summer of 1943, met Stephen Emerson Pendleton and was soon married on August 22, 1945. They had 3 children Karen, Sherry, and Stephen III, who all grew up on and helped care for the family farm.

Jeanette continued to teach for the Warren Center community even as she and her students moved over to the brand new Northeast Bradford Elementary School in 1971. She retired from teaching in 1984, but still continued helping her husband farm and also managed to find time to travel intermittently with her best friend Carol Cook. They were able to tour much of America and Europe as well. Jeanette's niece and special friend Arlene Oakley (age 101, formerly of West Warren) also accompanied the two ladies on many of their escapades.

Jeanette was always pleased to be back with her family and also her church family at Warren Center Baptist Church where she was an active member for many years. A big thanks to Pastor Larry and the church family for always keeping her apprised to all the church going-ons even when she could not attend weekly.

Surviving are her children Karen and Stephen III; son-in-law Faraydon; grandchildren Marcia (Gary), Mark, Pari (Jordan), Shuan (Alicia), Ashty (Caleb), and Haval; great grandchildren Kelsey, Kally, Kara, Kipp, Krista, Kieran, Mithra, Safin, and Avan; and great (literally) niece Dale (Ron, Ryan, Cameron Smith). She was predeceased by her husband Stephen and her daughter Sherry.

Family and friends are invited to attend a memorial service on Wednesday, September 30th at 6 pm at the Warren Center Baptist Church with Pastor Larry Jennings officiating. Memories and condolences may be shared by visiting her guestbook at www.sutfuneralchapel.com Jeanette will be laid to rest in the Warren Center Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Warren Center Baptist Church, 883 Coburn Hill Road, Warren Center, PA 18851 in loving memory of Jeanette B. Pendleton.

Cemetery

Warren Center Cemetery

Warren Center, PA, 18851

Events

SEP 30 Memorial Service 06:00PM

Warren Center Baptist Church
Coburn Hill Rd, Warren Center, PA, US, 18851

Comments

“ Dear Steve and Karen, So sorry to hear of AUNT Jeanette's passing. Feeling sad that Jerry and I didn't get to see her before Jerry passed, but she was a very nice person and I know Jerry loved her.

Linda Corbin - September 25, 2020 at 10:13 PM

“ My condolences to Mrs. Pendleton's family. I had her for Fourth and Fifth grades in Warren Center along with Steve. She was a warm, good teacher who certainly taught me a lot! Love, Theresa Murphy Friloux, Galveston, TX.

Theresa Murphy Friloux - September 03, 2020 at 11:15 PM

“ Karen and Stevie and Family,
What a great picture of Aunt Jeanette and Uncle Steve....just the way I want to remember them. She had a good long life and raised a good family. I will always remember her kind nature. You are all in my loving thoughts.

Tom Abell - August 30, 2020 at 05:44 PM

“ Karen and family, my deepest sympathy. I was saddened to hear about your mom. Mrs. Pendleton was always so sweet and welcoming to me. When Sherry and I would take off on one of our adventures, your mom always sent a batch of her delicious peanut butter no bake cookies with us. I treasure the recipe she shared with me and whenever I make them, I think of her and smile. Mine will never compare to hers. Please know you are all in my prayers.

Marcia Olmstead Harris

Marcia Olmstead Harris - August 30, 2020 at 04:06 PM